

Armchair, Deckchair or Garden Bench Quiz for Summer Days

In aid of Mothers' Union Mums in May, 21 in 21

All answers relate to Growth in the Garden or in Faith

- 1.- - - - - Wordsworth found them as he wandered 9
- 2.- - - - - - - - - It may be tiny but birds may eventually build their nests in its branches 7, 4
- 3.- - - - - Throw it in Right, not in the garden 6
- 4.- - - - - Mary Magdalene mistook Jesus for one (John 20) 8
- 5.- - - - - WRAWMELON Anagram 9
- 6.- - - - - - - - - Ancient trees from a distant land 6, 2 and 7
- 7.- - - - - One doesn't make a summer 7
- 8.- - - - - No looking back when you set your hand to this 6
- 9.- - - - - They are essential to life 4
- 10.- - - - - Will these not grow without support 11
- 11.- - - - - When work is done, you may rest and reflect on this 6 and 4
- 12.- - - - - By Any other name would smell as sweet 4
- 13.- - - - - Composed, not quite. Waste not 7
- 14.- - - - - Are there no gentlemen among these garden workers? 9
- 15.- - - - - Sweet or Nutritious 3
- 16.- - - - - Beauty untamed 4, 7
- 17.- - - - - Do they need a special mattress 7, 6
- 18.- - - - - A garden of tears and sorrow 10
- 19.- - - - - From small beginnings tall oaks grow 6
- 20.- - - - - Factor it in even if the sun isn't shining 9
- 21.- - - - - A joyful call on Easter morning 6, 2, 5

Help Mothers' Union to support families locally and globally, contribution €2 per entry

Draw for Prize for Completed Entry and Attempted Entry

Answers: Phyllis Grothier, Rosslee, Fenagh, Bagenalstown, Co. Carlow R21NW84 by 8th August.

Please include email address or sae if you would like to know the answers and winners